Getting Around Paris: Public Transport Tips

Public transportation in the Île-de-France region is efficient and easy to use. However, single-use paper tickets are being phased out. To travel, you'll need either a rechargeable Navigo Easy card (€2, available at metro/RER stations, SNCF counters, and authorized retailers) or the Bonjour RATP app.

Ticket Prices:

- Airport transfers (Paris Région Aéroports, Orly and Charles de Gaulle): €13
- Metro- Train-RER (within Paris): €2.50
- Bus-Tram: €2.00

Using the Bonjour RATP App:

With the Bonjour RATP app, you can buy and store tickets directly on your phone, or load them onto a Navigo Easy card. Your phone or card will be used to validate your trip at station entrances.
